

COVID-19:

SOCIAL DISTANCING

WHAT IS IT?

Maintaining distance from other people.

WHY DO IT?

Staying at least six feet or two meters away from other people lessens your chances of catching COVID-19. When someone coughs or sneezes they spray liquid droplets from their nose or mouth, which may contain the virus.

← DISTANCE DECREASES RISK →

